HEART MASSAGE - 1979

The Mattapoisett Police Department has completed its second year of teaching Cardio-pulmonary Resuscitation to the public. Fifty people completed the nine hour course in four different classes held between February 26th and April 13th. Participants have to attain at least a mark of 86% in a written exam along with the satisfactory performance of practical skills. This was accomplished by all fifty students and thereby qualifies them to administer CPR under the recognition of the American Heart Association.

The department, its instructors, and assistants wish to take this opportunity to thank Mr. and Mrs. William Huggard of Pearl Street, Mattapoisett, for their contribution of a dress form which has proven to be irreplaceable in assisting with the instruction of alleviating airway obstructions. A most sincere expression of appreciation is also extended to the "Knights of Columbus", Damien Council #190 for their generous contribution of $250. which will be utilized where it will best benefit

Kite Festival

ROCHESTER 300

The Rochester 300 Kite Festival, sponsored by the Rochester Historical Society, was held at a blustery Old Rochester Regional ball field. Kite enthusiasts came from great distances to compete for prizes and to share the thrill of the kite.

Best of show trophy went to Andy Gallison of Marion, who also won the trophy for the biggest kite, with his splendid "Bermuda Octagon" in blue and white, with a tail of brilliant streamers that reached to Bermuda (well, almost). Andy had several kites in the air, including a Japanese fighting kite and one that closely resembled a Canadian Goose in flight. Excellent work Andy. Congratulations.

The title for prettiest kite went to young Matthew DeGrandpre of Marion for his brilliant kite with a jolly smiling face.

The kite that flew the best was a long slinky snakelike banner which was among the first up and the last down, with never a problem between. It was the project of Andrew Pettey of Fall River, who made it from a space blanket.

The most original kite was a fascinating three dimensional triangle-on-triangle, properly called "Tetrahedral", built by Mr. Carl Poehler, Jr. of Vineyard Haven. Mr. Poehler is well known in kite circles, and has been a kite enthusiast for many years. He had several other kites up, some weird, some merely strange, one very funny one made from a manure sack.

Gregory and Phyllis Apkerian brought their large selection of brilliant purple kites, and stole the show with the purple bat that wouldn't come down.

The "kite eating trees" got some beautiful kites and broke the hearts of builder and spectator alike, but did not diminish the enthusiasm everyone felt. Many expressed the hope that this will become an annual event, and left the field with plans underway for their next kite. The Historical Society regrets that it had only five trophies to award, because five more could easily have been distributed among the fine kites - parachutes, bi-wing planes, standard, birds, and so forth. A hand knit kite with the official Rochester 300 emblem on it was deserving of a special prize, although it refused to fly.

milian I on a variety of instruments of the period. The Lincoln School Lamberquins, directed by Jim Hallan, will sing English and French madrigals which they perform with exquisite execution. The Tabor-Tones will sing the appropriate "Strike It Up Tabor" written by the Tudor madrigalist, Thomas Weelkes and especially arranged by Michael Pavone, director.

An interesting portion of the program will be the musical interlude of 2 PDQ Bach madrigal parodies: "The Queen To Me A Royal Pain Doth Give" and "My Bonnie Lass She Smelleth". The enlivening and entertaining evening will end with two madrigals in English and French sung by the combined choruses.

The public is warmly welcome to enjoy this musical feast and folly on the third floor of Hoyt Hall on the Tabor Campus.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH SPRING SEMINAR

"Gifts of the Spirit" is the topic for this year's annual Spring Seminar sponsored by the seven Episcopal Churches in Greater New Bedford. The Reverend Donald Winslow, Professor at the Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, will be at St. Gabriel's Church, Marion, on the first four Thursday evenings in May at 7:30 P.M. and will help participants use the Bible, historic definitions, and personal understandings to explore the gifts of the Holy Spirit and their reality for Christians today.

Before teaching Church History at the Divinity School, Mr. Winslow taught at the Philadelphia Divinity School and served parishes in Washington, D.C. and in Japan. He continues to be active in parish ministry by conducting continuing education events for both the laity and the clergy of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

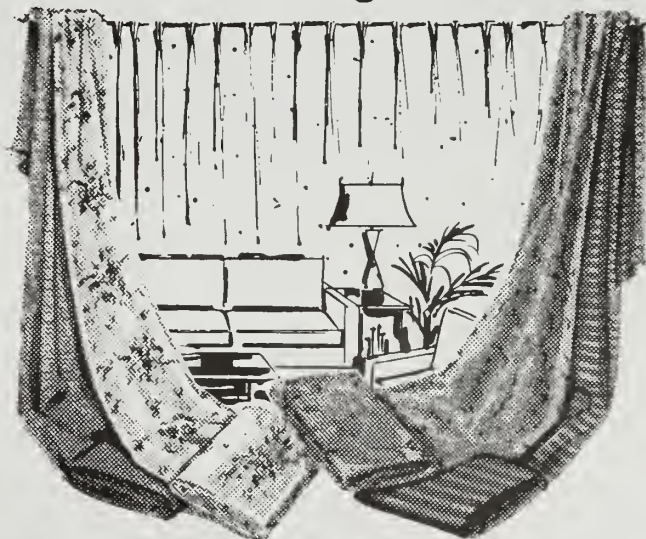

The themes for the first four Thursday nights will be: May 3, "Pentecost and the Charismatics"; May 10, "My Gifts and Your Gifts"; May 17, "Healing and Wholeness"; May 24, "Our Spiritual Ministry".

The public is invited to attend all or part of the seminar and a set donation for the series is suggested. For more information contact your local Episcopal Church.

Cabot's STAINS

Cabot's Stains, in 87 unique colors, preserve the wood, accent the grain, never crack, peel, blister.

In planning this home, the architect was striving for beauty, quality, economy. In the selection of exterior finishes, stains were used instead of paints. Thus the architect realized his conception of beauty, kept costs at a reasonable level, and reduced future maintenance.
